

Tegallalang Rice Terraces
etherland

ID.L.FD.B.1

Tegallalang Rice Terraces

Description

The Tegallalang Rice Terraces, located in the Ubud area of Bali, were created over two thousand years ago and are still in use today. The terraces are built into the hillside and consist of tiered levels that are used to cultivate rice. The view from the terraces is simply stunning, with the greenery of the terraces contrasting against the blue sky and rolling hills in the distance.

Metadata

- Landmarks: Famous Districts
- Cadastral Number: ID.L.FD.B.1
- Country: Indonesia
- City: Bali
- GPS Coordinates: 8.4340° S, 115.2793° E